PBC Day 2015 Breakfast at the Aloft

Register Now! Time is Running Out!

One Hotel Almost Full

PBC Day registration activity has spiked this month as many people are taking advantage of the on-line registration process. If you haven't registered yet, and you need a hotel room, time is running out. By the time this update hits your mailbox, our block at the Aloft Hotel will be completely full. However, we still have some rooms available at the DoubleTree Hotel, which is just a few blocks away from the Capitol. The DoubleTree has had some major renovations within the past year, so you can look forward to a new look when you walk into the lobby. The Aloft will be our base hotel and all registration packets must be picked up in the Aloft lobby, however, we have moved our Wednesday Night Hospitality Suite to "Jacob's Lounge" located within the DoubleTree Hotel.

In order to register, please scan the following QR code with your smart phone:

Be Sure You Have A Room

You may have registered for Palm Beach County Day, but did you reserve your hotel room? You may register for your PBC Day tickets and pay the registration fee right on-line using Eventbrite. The next step after you register for PBC Day is to reserve your hotel room. This does not happen through Eventbrite, but through the hotel directly.

Once you register for PBC Day, you will receive an e-mail from Palm Beach County Public Affairs with a link to reserve your hotel room. This link will be based on the hotel preference you selected when you registered. Click on the link in the e-mail and make your room reservation. Once you have reserved your room, you are all set! Now it's time to get some warm clothes to wear to Tallahassee in January.

Exhibit the Best of Palm Beach County

Solid Waste Authority putting the final touches on their PBC Day exhibit.

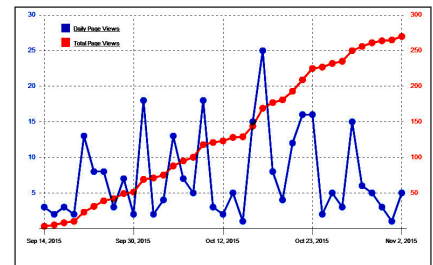

For many years at Palm Beach County Day, organizations have had the opportunity to create an exhibit in the Capitol Rotunda that promotes their organization. This is a great opportunity to get your organization's message out to the many Palm Beach County Day participants who are visiting Tallahassee. Many of these attendees to the various PBC Day events are the "movers and shakers" of the county, and most likely, decision makers. This is an ideal audience for any organization hoping to make an impact on the county as well as the lawmakers in Tallahassee. One eight foot table and two chairs are provided by Palm Beach County Public Affairs to any attendee who would like to have an exhibit in the Rotunda. The space is reserved, but call now to make sure you have a spot. Please contact PBC Public Affairs at (561) 355-4125 or e-mail castephe@pbcgov.org.

On-line Activity Increasing

In an effort to make Palm Beach County Day registration easy and efficient, we have made it possible to register on-line at the touch of a finger by using Eventbrite. Registrations continue to come in as we draw closer to the January start to the legislative session. Eventbrite has charted an increase in our overall page views and registrations for Palm Beach County Day. With one hotel block at capacity and the second hotel block filling in quickly, Palm Beach County Day 2016 looks to be an exciting event with a lot of opportunities to network with business leaders, community leaders, elected officials and state lawmakers in an effort to promote Palm Beach County's legislative priorities.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to be involved in this important effort to bring state tax dollars back to Palm Beach County to address our most important issues. Register to attend Palm Beach County Day, today.

Limited number of rooms, Reserve Early

Public Affairs has secured a block of rooms at the Aloft and DoubleTree Hotels. Please return the attendee registration form, including the names of the attendees. There are a limited number of rooms in our group and this will be a first come first reserve basis. This year there will be a hotel code to reserve your room online with the hotel once your registration has been paid.

No rooms can be reserved without paid registration.

The Aloft, our host hotel, is $199.00 per night, and requires a two-night stay.

We also have a block of rooms at the DoubleTree, $204.00 per night, which also requires two-night stay.
